As a volunteer focused organization, fulfilling your mission and keeping your operation sustainable depends on the efficient management of your volunteers and tracking the outcomes of their activities. Today's funders are looking to see outcomes showing the impact of your team's efforts. With the NewOrg Volunteer Management System (VMS), organizations can easily track volunteer activities and deliver the reporting required by your funders.

Our volunteer management partners rely on NewOrg VMS to provide efficiencies in the following areas:

- Central Volunteer Database
- On-line Volunteer Applications
- Volunteers Scheduling and Service Tracking
- Automated event and opportunity registration
- Volunteer Reporting (Activities, Hours, Travel Time, Outcomes, Service Interactions)

Configured to Meet your Organization's Needs: NewOrg's volunteer data management and reporting platform is designed specifically to work with your organizations individual needs, while leveraging the capabilities of NewOrg VMS. These capabilities are integrated into your volunteer management process, using your current forms, outcome methods and reporting needs.

The Volunteer Management Service portal maximizes access.

NewOrg VMS offers your Volunteer Applicants Online Self-Service functionality that improves efficiencies:

- Eliminates the need for a manual process, multiple spreadsheet and forms
- Sign up on-line
- Complete online liability waivers and vetting forms
- Self-service portal to self-select areas of interest and times of availability and skill sets

NewOrg VMS self-service portal provides approved volunteers with access to the following:

- Secure log-in (username and password)
- View internal calendars that are unique to their activities
- Access to update their personal information and view volunteering history
- Sign-up for posted volunteer opportunities and events
- View of documents that you make available to them
- Complete detailed forms surveys and reports—specific to your organizations needs
- Provide your organization information related to their skills, volunteering preferences and availability for activities.

NewOrg's volunteer data system allows organizations to track credentialing through sensitive vetting processes

Real-Time Reporting: The NewOrg management system can dramatically reduce the time to provide reporting to senior management, board of directors, funders and government agencies. Once the outcome management and reporting structure is implemented it is possible to deliver up to the minute reports at the click of a button, verses days or weeks involved in assembling reporting data from spreadsheets, documents and siloed organizational databases.
